PURPOSE: The Disciplinary Procedures policy at Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science (CDU) supports the University’s educational mission by promoting a safe, orderly and positive University climate through enforcing behavioral standards, enacting and facilitating intervention efforts, managing disciplinary proceedings, mentoring students, developing leadership, delivering informational programming and fostering peer education. We hope to create a University culture that is self-disciplined, where civility is embraced, and the norms and foundational beliefs validate the essential values of CDU, namely

- personal and academic integrity;
- respect for the dignity of all persons and a willingness to learn from the differences in people, ideas, and opinions;
- respect for the rights, property and safety of others; and
- concern for others and their feelings and their need for conditions that support an environment where they can work, grow and succeed at Charles R. Drew University of Medicine and Science.

BACKGROUND:

POLICY:

Accountability: Students, Faculty, Staff and Administrators

Applicability: This policy is applicable to enrolled students in an academic degree program that leads to an undergraduate or graduate degree and/or a post-baccalaureate certificate.

Definition(s):

Enrolled Students – Students matriculated in an undergraduate, graduate or certificate program at CDU.
When students register for classes at Charles R. Drew University, they are agreeing to abide by University, College, and Program regulations. Although many of these regulations are set forth in this University Catalog, more information can be obtained from the program offices and the Office of Registration and Records.

Drafted by: ____________________________   ____________________________   _____________
            Name                        Title                        Date