POURPOSE: The Divisions of Academic Affairs and Student Services strive to deliver a student discipline process that is equitable, just, educational, effective and expeditious; and to provide a system that promotes student growth through individual responsibility and in which the success of its educational endeavors is characterized by increased civility.

BACKGROUND:

POLICY:

Accountability: Students, Faculty, Staff and Administrators

Applicability: This policy is applicable to enrolled students in an academic degree program that leads to an undergraduate or graduate degree and/or a post-baccalaureate certificate.

Definition(s):

Enrolled Students – Students matriculated in an undergraduate, graduate or certificate program at CDU.

Text:

The Divisions of Academic Affairs and Student Services continually review student policies and regulations to ensure that they reflect changes in basic University practice and policy, and to recommend modifications as warranted by a changing student environment. Included in their review are the regulations pertaining to the student conduct system, which is administered by the Office of Academic Affairs presiding in coordination with the Offices of Student Services.

The Office of Student Affairs for each college reviews all matters relating to student conduct and academic integrity. A complete description of the student conduct system is printed in the Student Handbook.
Procedures for handling alleged violations of the academic integrity policy are the responsibility of each of the University’s colleges. These procedures are outlined in the colleges’ respective student handbooks.

Confidentiality: No information pertaining to student performance presented at a program or committee meeting or in a counseling session will be discussed or divulged outside the respective program committee membership. This prohibition includes information of a non-academic and personal nature and all deliberation and details of committee voting.
