CONVERSATIONS ON HEALTH AND POLITICS
A WEEKLY SERIES HOSTED BY THE URBAN PUBLIC HEALTH PROGRAM
PRESENTS

A QUESTION OF FREEDOM:
THE DETERMINANT OF HEALTH

For this week’s conversation, our guests take us through the ways that racial logic, policies, and actions criminalize and compromise our ability to determine our health.

6:00PM-8:00PM, THURSDAY
MARCH 2, 2017

Featured Guests:

AURA BOGADO
LA-based writer covering issues of equity and environment

HAMID KHAN
Coordinator,
Stop LAPD Spying Coalition

PETE WHITE
Executive Director,
Los Angeles Community Action Network (LA CAN)

Moderated by:
BITA AMANI
Assistant Professor, Charles R. Drew University

FOR MORE INFORMATION
EMAIL BITAAMANI@CDREWU.EDU
CONVERSATIONS ARE WEEKLY