

CONVERSATIONS ON HEALTH AND POLITICS
A WEEKLY SERIES HOSTED BY THE URBAN PUBLIC HEALTH PROGRAM
PRESENTS

REBELS WITH A CAUSE: REPRODUCTIVE JUSTICE, COMMUNITY-DRIVEN SOLUTIONS
AND THE CUBAN HEALTH MODEL

Featured Guests:

CYNTHIA DAVIS, MPH, DHL

Assistant Professor, Charles R. Drew University
Director, Drew University HIV/AIDS Education and Community Outreach
Board Chair, AIDS Healthcare Foundation

KATHRYN HALL-TRUJILLO, MPH

Rshoka Fellow
Adjunct Professor, University of San Francisco
Founding Director, Birthing Project USA
Independent Scholar, Cuba Health Care System

Moderated by:

BITA AMANI, PHD, MHS

Assistant Professor, Charles R. Drew University

Cynthia Davis and Kathryn Hall-Trujillo have been fighting for - and celebrating - Black and Brown life for decades.

Deeply influenced by the Cuban Health Model, they have steadfastly deployed community-driven solutions to provide services and to address the social injustices at the root of maternal and child health and HIV disparities.

For this week, these health rebels will join us to discuss their work and our future.

THURSDAY,
FEBRUARY 16, 2017

KECK LECTURE HALL
CHARLES R. DREW UNIVERSITY OF
MEDICINE AND SCIENCE
1731 E 120TH ST, LA, CA 90059

5:00PM-6:00PM VIEWING OF "DOLLS OF HOPE"
INTERNATIONALLY RECOGNIZED DOLLS THAT RAISE AWARENESS AROUND HIV AND ITS HUMAN IMPACT

6:00PM-8:00PM EVENT CONVERSATION

FOR MORE INFORMATION EMAIL BITAAMANI@CDREWU.EDU
CONVERSATIONS ARE WEEKLY STARTING FEB 16, 2017 TILL APRIL 27, 2017.

